FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

Important – OFFERING OF MASS INTENTIONS

When we began having “multiple” intentions at the Friday evening Divine Mercy Mass in October of 2012, I thought this would somewhat ease the request of masses by individuals. However, due to the continued high demand of “mass intentions” (anniversaries, sick, deceased, etc.) and in addition to the Friday evening Divine Mercy Mass, we are going to begin “multiple intentions” AT THE SATURDAY 5:00 p.m. & SUNDAY MASSES ONLY, BEGINNING AUGUST 01, 2016. At each of these Sunday masses, we will be accepting up to 4 intentions. Each week, ONE of these Sunday masses must be for “parishioners”. “Every parish pastor is required by Canon Law to offer at least one mass for needs and intentions of his parishioners (Can. 534 §1).”

Weekday morning masses – Monday through Saturday – masses will have one intention only.

I wish to make something very clear: The Mass payments (stipends) that are received for multiple intentions are sent to support the Salvatorian Missions in the world – they do not remain at Holy Cross Parish.

Much discussion and thought has gone into this by Fr. Chris, office staff and I. No, it is not the “perfect” solution, but the hope is that by offering and opening up more options, it will help many parishioners in their bookings of mass intentions. As this is a change for all of us, I would appreciate your patience and cooperation as we go through this transition process.

Thank You and God Bless,

Fr. Maciej Wos, SDS,
Pastor
